

Testimony In Dribblets Is Claim

Senator Makes Charge That Inquiry Being Hamstrung

By TOM REEDY
WASHINGTON, Dec. 1.—(P)—Rep. Gearhart (R-Calif.) today accused the Democrats on the Pearl Harbor investigating committee with "deliberately" unfolding the testimony in dribblets to "hamstring a real investigation."

"They have accomplished their purpose," Gearhart, a committee member, told reporters. "They have turned this into a judicial body without any real investigative duty."

But Senator Lucas (D-Ill.) told a reporter that his mail has convinced him that "the American people are thoroughly satisfied with the way the committee and William D. Mitchell, its counsel, are conducting this inquiry."

"The Doubting Thomases are beginning to believe that we are going to get all of the facts about Pearl Harbor and that is just what we are going to do," he declared.

Lucas said the evidence thus far "indicates beyond a doubt that the various branches of the armed services were not coordinated sufficiently at the time of the attack so that all knew what the others were doing."

Charge Records Withheld
Gearhart complained that the committee members were being denied access to important records. He referred specifically to the testimony of witnesses who have appeared before as many as five groups concerned with the Pearl Harbor disaster.

"We should have all that before us to compare their testimony and we can't get it," Gearhart declared.

Gerhard Gesell, associated counsel for the committee, told Rep. Keefe (R-Wis.) that the report by Brigadier Gen. Carter Clark was in his hands but that it contained some "top secret" information on codes and how to break them which the army didn't want to get out.

"That's just the thing we've been complaining about from the start," Gearhart commented to reporters. "They (the majority) spoon out to us what they want us to know and nothing more."

Gearhart said he was not impressed by the groaning record of 600,000 words already built and joined in Keefe's demand for more.

The Clark report came up during Miles' testimony about decoding Japanese spy information before the attack on Hawaii.

The committee took a holiday today but Chairman Barkley (D-Ky.) indicated that next week will be a six-day affair.

Nazi General Is Executed

AVERSA, Italy, Dec. 1.—(P)—Nazi General Anton Dostler, shouting "long live Germany," died today before an American firing squad for ordering the execution of 15 American soldiers captured behind German lines in March, 1944.

The 54-year-old general, first high ranking German officer to die for war crimes in western Europe was executed in the firing pit of a prisoner of war stockade two miles from Aversa. Every bullet went into the white patch pinned over his heart. Captain A. N. Liberman of Bangor, Me., a medical officer, pronounced him dead at 9:11 a. m., two minutes after the 12 rifleman fired.

Dostler was convicted in October by a U. S. court martial, which disregarded his defense plea that he was carrying out orders of his superiors to execute the Americans. The Americans were captured near La Spezia after they had landed behind German lines in a daring attempt to dynamite a railroad tunnel.

The Weather

Partly cloudy in the west, cloudy in the east, with a few scattered showers in the northeast. Colder except in the extreme east. Sunday high temperatures 40 to 45. Monday partly cloudy and continued cool.

Goering Laughs Then Slips

The irrepressible Herman Goering (at left in top photo), facing a possible death sentence as outcome of war crimes trial, laughingly explains a point to unsmiling Rudolf Hess, at his left, as they sit in defendants' box during trials in Nuremberg, Germany. At another point on the same day, Goering clasped a hand over his mouth (lower photo) after uttering a remark out of turn. Hess almost smiles this time.

Mrs. Clark Is Injured When Hit By Auto

Driver Of Car, James Watring, Is Under Bond

Mrs. Anna W. Clark, 69, was seriously injured, and her husband Frank W. Clark, 68, of 93 East Broadway, was less severely hurt about 7:25 o'clock Saturday night when struck by an automobile driven by James Watring, of Syracuse, while crossing Broadway in front of their home. They were rushed to the Bothwell hospital where Dr. W. A. Beckemeyer gave medical attention.

Mrs. Clark received a fracture of both bones in the right leg below the knee, possible fracture of the right arm, and suffered numerous bruises and shock. She will remain at the hospital.

Husband Knocked Down
Mr. Clark was knocked to the pavement and received bruises and an injury to the right wrist. An x-ray will be taken Sunday to determine if the bone is fractured.

They were taken to the hospital in the McLaughlin ambulance. Mr. Clark told a reporter that Mrs. Clark and himself had arrived home a few minutes earlier and put his car into the garage. He said they decided to go to the home of Mr. and Mrs. J. E. McNeal, 924 East Broadway, to spend the evening and were walking south across the street when the accident occurred.

Watring, who is 20 years old, was driving a 1936 Plymouth sedan of Leonard Koenke, Syracuse, and was going east at the time of the accident. According to the driver's statement he met another coming from the east and before he realized it the couple had stepped in front of the car. He said he was going about twenty-five miles an hour.

Watring was accompanied by Mrs. Leonard Koenke and her daughter Miss Nowetta Mae Koenke also of Syracuse.

He was arrested by the police on a charge of driving in a careless and reckless manner and posted a $500 bond for his appearance before Judge C. W. Bente in police court Monday morning.

Sedalia's Be At Convention

A delegation from the Pettis County Democratic Women's club will attend the convention of the Missouri Federation of Democratic Women's clubs to be held in Jefferson City Tuesday and Wednesday.

Registration will open at 11 a. m. Tuesday at the Missouri hotel and there will be a banquet that night at 7 o'clock at Selinger Center. The business sessions will begin at 9 o'clock Wednesday morning.

A reception at the Governor's Mansion Wednesday afternoon will be a social feature of the convention.

A bus has been chartered for Wednesday morning for the Sedalia representation, and those wishing to make reservations should call Mrs. T. J. Bunn, telephone 3341.

Warning Given On Bogus Checks

Sedalia merchants are warned to be more strict in cashing checks, due to complaints received by the police in the past few days of merchants cashing checks which have been returned "no account," "forgery" and "unknown."

Saturday afternoon a call was made to a local bank in which the voice said, "this is Dr. Maddox, I am sending a young fellow over to get a check cashed." He was assured it was alright.

A young negro appeared at the bank with a check for $60 written on the U. S. Bank of Omaha. The teller informed the negro he would have to call Dr. Maddox to verify authenticity of the check. The negro turned and fled from the bank before police could be notified.

Several days ago several worthless checks were "floated" in Sedalia by a person who signed the checks C. E. McGill or C. E. McMillen. Several of the checks have already been returned to the local merchants who immediately notified the police.

The checks were written on the "Potts Construction Co., for labor."

Young Man Dies Of Suffocation In Well

PARSONS, Kas., Dec. 1.—(P)—Harold Hasel, 19, died of suffocation today in a farm well eight miles northeast of here.

Hasel had gone into the well to remove part of a pump. A rescuer from the Parsons fire department failed to revive Hasel.

Fire Chief E. G. Parsons said death was caused by "black damp."

Daughter And Son Are Home

Mr. and Mrs. Hugh Collins, 911 East Sixth street, have with them their daughter, Lt. Laura Collins, Army Nurses Corps, just back from the Pacific, and their son, S/Sgt. John A. Collins, who is home on sick leave from the Schoep hospital in Clinton, Iowa, until January 6.

S/Sgt. Collins, who has recently returned to the United States after being held prisoner at Macassar in Celebes, Netherlands East Indies, by the Japanese, on Saturday received word from the war department that he had been promoted to the grade of corporal to staff sergeant.

Lt. Collins is home on terminal leave. She landed on Monday, November 19 and was sent to Ft. Sheridan, Ill. She has been in service three years and served two and one half years in the European area, going from there to the Pacific.

Congress May Take Up Anti-Strike Bill

Failure Of The Labor-Management Conference Cited

WASHINGTON, Dec. 1.—(P)—Failure of the labor-management conference to produce concrete machinery for settling industrial strife led to predictions tonight that congress now would act on an anti-strike bill.

Rep. Michener (R-Mich.), a member of the house rules committee which reported the measure to the floor last Wednesday, said he had opposed "action in congress irritating labor or management" during the conference but that he now felt congress should go ahead. Other congressmen had taken a similar stand.

Two of the bill's supporters, Reps. Howard Smith (D-Va.) and Cox (D-Ga.), told reporters they might seek a vote next week. The measure would impose heavy penalties on unions which violate no-strike clauses in labor contracts.

Could Be Called Up
House leaders omitted the anti-strike bill from next week's schedule. But any member of the rules committee can call it up on the floor. Cox and Smith are committee members as well as Michener.

Michener said he thought "a courageous statement" from the President would "obviate the necessity for anti-strike legislation at the moment." But lacking any signs from the White House, Michener said congress should pass legislation at once to make labor "as responsible for its contracts and acts as is management."

The press officer of the labor-management conference, Fred C. Smith, predicted that "more strikes, more industrial upheavals of all sorts, strong government and congressional action" were almost certain to ensue.

Smith said in an interview that failure of the conference to produce "anything conclusive" signaled a need for stronger White House leadership to avert a labor crisis.

The meeting might have been saved, he said, had President Truman taken a hand when it bogged down instead of sticking to a decision that there should be no government interference.

Eric Johnston, President of the U. S. Chamber of Commerce and one of the leaders who planned the labor-management conference with President Truman and Secretaries Schwelmbach and Wallace, summed up the conference in a radio address tonight.

He warned against pressures which might "stampede us into national policies which we shall have cause to regret and bewail later."

"The temptation is strong, at a time like this, to evade the responsibility of voluntary action by resorting to official coercion," Johnston said in his prepared remarks.

"I do not want to be understood as saying that perhaps no legislation is necessary. Maybe it is. What I am saying is that whatever we do should not be hasty or ill-conceived. It should be well thought out."

British Police Staged Raids Through Ruhr

Arrest German Industrialists In The Roundup

By CHARLES CHAMBERLAIN
ISERLOHN, Germany, Dec. 1.—(P)—British Security Police, striking secretly last night and early today in simultaneous raids throughout the Ruhr, arrested 76 German industrialists, described by a senior British officer as "leading members of the most dangerous class in Germany."

Hundreds of British troops and special investigators staged the dramatic precision raids. The czars of Germany's multi-billion dollar steel and iron industry, surprised in their luxurious food-stocked mansions, face possible charges as war criminals.

The round-up, which began at 11 p. m. and continued until 3 a. m. in Dortmund, Essen, Duisburg, Dusseldorf and other centers, caught the industrialists in circumstances varying from drinking champagne to taking stomach pills before retiring.

Were Well Planned
So well planned were the raids that only seven on the original arrest list escaped. A British intelligence officer said it was only a question of time until these would be arrested and sent to an internment camp with the others for indefinite detention. Among those rounded up were eight directors and advisors of the vast Krupp works.

The British spokesman said the raids constituted a partial application of the Potsdam policy that German militarism and Nazism must be wiped out. Removal of the industrialists "from the world of affairs," he said, "is necessary preliminary to the reconstruction of German society."

Volumes of documents and records of the whole gigantic Ruhr industry, which equipped Hitler's war machine, are in the hands of British and American intelligence experts, the officer said. After study has been completed he indicated some of the steel magnates would be charged as war criminals.

Most of the industrialists, described by the British spokesman as "a class making for war and the suppression of democratic liberties of the people," already were in bed when the raids started.

Offer Be Accepted
"I shall of course accept the offer," Thomas wrote. His letter gave no indication, however, of any retreat from the union's wage demands which Wilson has assailed as "unreasonable."

Discussing the possibility that strikers returning to work on parts output might be asked to contribute portions of their pay to the union strike funds, a spokesman at international UAW-CIO headquarters said such a decision would be left to the local unions involved.

He expressed belief some locals would take such action.

Principal General Motors parts plants, a corporation spokesman said, employed more than 40,000 of the 175,000 workers now on strike in more than 70 factories. The AC Spark Plug plant at Flint, Mich., produces, in addition to plugs, fuel pumps which the spokesman said were used by about 90 per cent of the motor car industry. It employs nearly 10,000 workers.

The Wilson-Thomas agreement was the first indication of a break in the shutdown that spread through the nation's GM plants when the UAW-CIO struck Nov. 21 to enforce demands for a 30 per cent wage increase within the corporation's present price structure.

The company's reported offer was said to have been received here as union members prepared to terminate a week-long "demonstration" strike that started Monday.

Boggs called the alleged counter-offer "the biggest step Montgomery Ward has ever taken," but would not say that it constituted the basis of a settlement in the long-standing controversy.

Known Crash Survivors Nine

PORTLAND, Ore., Dec. 1.—(P)—The number of known survivors of an army transport crash in southern Oregon Monday returned to nine today. One survivor had been reported twice.

Maj. J. M. Keck of the rescue group headquarters near Coos Bay, said a man spotted in the rugged mountains today by a Coast Guard plane proved to be the same one located last night.

The plane carried 12 men; five have been rescued.

The plane was based at the Sedalia Army Air Field, Sedalia, Mo.

Weather forced the crew and passengers to parachute when the fuel supply became low.

UAW Agrees To Relax On GM Strike

Would Permit Parts Producing By Other Plants

DETROIT, Dec. 2.—(P)—Striking CIO Automobile Workers agreed today to relax their strike against General Motors Corp. To permit production of parts for competitors of the giant automotive concern.

A General Motors spokesman said the action might result in partial resumption of work in nearly half the corporation's plants.

The unprecedented agreement to permit some of the striking UAW-CIO members to produce car parts needed by GM rivals came from R. J. Thomas, union president, in response to a proposal by General Motors President C. E. Wilson.

In a letter Thomas told Wilson the offer was "generous" and came as a "welcome surprise," but he expressed belief there are "only one or two items on which GMC production is an essential part of the picture for other manufacturers."

Offer Be Accepted
"I shall of course accept the offer," Thomas wrote.

His letter gave no indication, however, of any retreat from the union's wage demands which Wilson has assailed as "unreasonable."

R. O. Clymer Be Guest Artist

Raymond Oscar Clymer, baritone, will be the guest artist with the Sedalia Symphony orchestra at the second concert of the season to be presented Monday night, December 10, at the Smith-Cotton high school auditorium at 8:20 o'clock.

Voice instructor and choral director at Stephens college, Columbia, Mr. Clymer formerly was chairman of the music department at Ohio Northern university.

He has studied voice with Lila Robeson of the Metropolitan opera, Frank LaForge of New York, and Bernard Taylor of the Juilliard School of Music, New York City.

Eight Die In Fire At Home For Aged

Capt. Jack Connelly, who was in service for five years, two years in the Pacific area, has been released, and with Mrs. Connelly, is now visiting at the home of his parents, Mr. and Mrs. C. E. Connelly, 217 West Seventh street. They plan to remain in Sedalia until after Christmas.

In A Ruling Hess Fit To Face Trial

Attempt Made To Discredit Story Is Frustrated

By DANIEL DE LUCE
NUERNBERG, Dec. 1.—(P)—Rudolf Hess, self-confessed amnesia faker, was ruled fit to stand trial today, and then listed intently as defense attorneys failed to break down a German spy chieftain's testimony linking some of his co-defendants with the worst horrors of Nazism.

British Lord Justice Sir Geoffrey Lawrence announced the international military tribunal's decision that Hess was "capable of standing trial," with no further medical examination necessary. Before the court opened, Hess had regaled his fellow defendants with the story of his lost-memory hoax.

Attorneys for Field Marshal Wilhelm Keitel, Hermann Goering, and Joachim Von Ribbentrop sought in vain to upset the story told by Maj. Gen. Erwin Lahousen, former officer of the German counter-intelligence, and first prosecution witness. Lahousen had not mentioned Hess, and Hess' attorney put no questions to Lahousen today.

But eight other German lawyers for three hours grilled Lahousen, who yesterday declared that Hitler and the entire German high command were to blame for atrocities on the Eastern front.

The attorney for Franz Von Papan, wily diplomat in the days of Nazi power politics, extracted from Lahousen an expression of belief that Von Papan "stayed on in a political capacity in order to exercise a mitigating influence" on Nazi policy.

Keitel's attorney, Otto Neitel, declared Keitel had denied Lahousen's testimony that his client had ordered the assassination in 1940 of the French General Maxime Weygand, and demanded written proof from Lahousen.

Lahousen replied that the order was given verbally, but that he had been present "at a conference where Keitel asked me what happened about it."

Orders Not Carried Out
The witness said Keitel's orders to assassinate both Weygand and Gen. Henri Giraud never were carried out by Admiral Wilhelm Canaris, Greek-born head of the German army's counter-intelligence section to which the witness was attached.

Keitel's attorney let slip an admission that orders for branding Soviet war prisoners were the "result of a terrible misunderstanding" at the Fuehrer's headquarters. The attorney asked Lahousen if such was the case, and Lahousen replied that he did not know.

To Von Ribbentrop's counsel, Lahousen only reaffirmed that the former foreign minister said in September, 1939, that Polish farms must be burned and Jews killed.

Goering's attorney diverged far from preceding testimony to inquire if Lahousen had failed to report promptly the American landings in North Africa.

"Please don't make me responsible for my whole department," Lahousen retorted. "This was not my affair."

The tribunal denied a request by the defendants that they be given the right to conduct their own examination of witnesses.

The tribunal decreed that only defendants who lacked counsel could participate in the questioning. All 20 defendants in the prisoners' dock have their own attorneys, as do two others being tried in absentia. The ruling came after U. S. Chief Prosecutor Justice Robert H. Jackson said that permitting the prisoners to examine witnesses would convert the trial into a "performance."

When the session opened Hess laid aside the novel he had been reading during the opening days of the trial, and followed the proceedings closely.

To Maj. Douglas Kelley, U. S. army psychiatrist, Hess had boasted of his skilled navigation on his astounding flight to England in May, 1941. Hess confirmed reports that he had left a note for Hitler saying he was going to try to appeal for peace in the hope of what he termed saving the world from Bolshevism.

Merry-Go-Round

by Drew Pearson

WASHINGTON, Dec. 1.—In 1925 this writer was making a laborious trip over the Gobi desert to Urga, capital of Mongolia. Across the horizon, heading down from the Siberian border, came a long caravan of motor cars—Fords, Buicks, Chevrolets of uncertain vintage—all driven by Chinese chauffeurs. Puffing across the plain, they pulled up at the water-hole where I was encamped.

On the running board of each car was strapped a long wooden box packed with rifles. Inside each car were smaller boxes of cartridges.

They were being shipped by Soviet Russia to stir up civil war in China. But their recipient was none other than Chiang Kai-Shek, more recently the ardent opponent of Russia.

Later this writer visited Chiang's stronghold in south China. He was in command of the Whampoa cadets, a Chinese Red army, trained by Soviet officers including the famous Comrade Borodin.

To Britains and Americans at that time, Chiang Kai-Shek and communism were one and the same thing. Both were equally hated—and for good reason. In Canton, he and his so-called Communists had clamped down a boycott against Americans, Britons, and all foreigners that was no joke. Grass grew in the streets of the foreign settlement. The American consul general, Douglas Jenkins, could be seen each morning sweeping out his office. Every foreign official in Canton cooked his own meals—and considered himself lucky to get food. Only humorous aspect was watching the tall and bearded French consul pull his groceries home from the commissary in a child's toy wagon every morning.

Our Cowboy Ambassador

That was exactly 20 years ago. Since then, Chiang Kai-Shek has become the great friend of the Americans and British and enemy of the Russians—though quite capable of patching up a new division of Manchurian spoils with them as reported this week.

I mention this because such changes are not uncommon in China. Neither are civil wars. There has been no period in the last 100 years of Chinese history when some war lord or other did not have an army in the field jockeying for more revenue, more territory, or more concubines.

At such times as I have visited China, it was always an axiom that when the Chinese corn crop was cut, the troops would start moving. Even the war lords had some consideration for peasants' crops and the country's food supply.

It was into this vortex of political intrigue that Pat Hurley, our naive and delightful cowboy ambassador from Oklahoma, threw the full weight of the U.S.A. with all its prestige, all its lend lease, all its Far East airplanes—and threw their weight on one side, apparently not realizing that its chief was quite capable of making a new deal with his enemy, the Russians, whenever it was expedient, behind Hurley's back.

All this is why Hurley was so sore at the State Department's Far Eastern experts who tried to warn him what was cooking. Months ago they realized what public reaction would be to American pilots' losing their lives for the bene-

Report On the War

Biennial Report of the Chief of Staff of the U. S. Army 1943 to 1945, to the Secretary of War
Published by NEA Service, Inc., in cooperation with the War Department

This is the 15th of 42 installments of material selected from General Marshall's report on the winning of World War II.

XV D-DAY

IT was not merely overwhelming numbers of planes which gave our air assault its great effectiveness. There were important, almost revolutionary, improvements in techniques and in equipment. To reduce the excessive aircraft losses in long, round-trip bombing flights exposed to constant enemy interception, a system of shuttle-bombing between bases in the United Kingdom and North Africa was initiated in mid-August 1943. The shuttle-bombing run was shortened as the advance in Italy continued. A shuttle system between Italy and the U. S. S. R. was inaugurated with a heavy raid on rail communications in Central Europe on 2 June 1944. Soon thereafter, shuttle-flights were made between the United Kingdom and the new Ukrainian bases.

Radar bombing technique, first employed in the fall of 1943, improved constantly. All-weather bombing approached reality; our bombers used the cover of darkness and inclement weather to achieve surprise, yet still hit their target with precision.

In the spring of 1944, three months before D-day, the Allied air forces, while still hammering at their strategic targets, began directly to prepare the way for the invasion. Through destructive attacks on key bridges and rail centers, the "invasion coast" was effectively isolated. As a result of this preparatory bombing, the ability of the enemy to shift reserves to the critical area was severely restricted. Since the outcome of an amphibious operation hinges on the relative ability of the opposing forces to build up strength in the critical areas, this air preparation was a decisive factor in the success of OVERLORD.

The Assault

The beaches of Normandy were chosen for the assault after long study of the strength of German coastal defenses and the disposition of German divisions. The absence of large ports in the area was a serious obstacle, but it was offset in some measure by the relative weakness of the German defenses and elaborate construction in Britain of two artificial fit of Chinese war lords.

NOTE 1: Eleven U. S. plane crashes were reported last week in China in one day alone, all of them flown by U. S. pilots for the benefit of Chiang Kai-Shek.

NOTE 2: Senator Langer of North Dakota has long demanded that the State Department explain the gift of rare Chinese jewelry valued at $30,000 by the Chiang government to Mrs. Hurley.

No Parachutes In China

Additional information is now available regarding the tragic death of Pvt. W. M. Callaway of Beaumont, Texas, on Oct. 7, 1945, in the Himalaya mountains, just after his and other army passenger planes had been ordered not to carry parachutes.

The no-parachute order was issued by the air forces in Washington, Sept. 5, and by Brig. Gen. William H. Tunner, commander of the India-Burma theatre, on Sept. 20. He was carrying out Washington orders. The order applied to C-54s, or 4-engine transports carrying passengers, including General Tunner's own plane, and specified that they should not carry parachutes.

Hitherto these planes had carried parachutes while flying the "hump" but the army explains that hump flying has been stopped. Reason for the no-parachute order on 4-motored transport planes carriers to be employed off the beaches.

The selection of target dates and hours for the assault required an accurate forecast of the optimum combination of favorable weather, tide, and light conditions. Moonlight was desirable for the airborne operations. D-day was scheduled for 5 June; this date was changed to 6 June because of unfavorable but clearing weather. Hundreds of craft, en route from distant ports on the west coast of England, were already approaching the invasion area; they had to backtrack or seek shelter in the overcrowded harbors on the south coast. The final forecast for the attack day predicted high winds; the sea was still rough, but rather than accept a delay of several weeks until tide and moon provided another favorable moment, General Eisenhower made the fateful decision to go ahead.

At 0200 hours on 6 June 1944, the American 82d and 101st Airborne Divisions, as well as British airborne troops, were dropped in vital areas in the rear of German coastal defenses guarding the Normandy beaches from Cherbourg to Caen.

The seaborne assault under the over-all command of Field Marshal Montgomery was made on a broad front; British and Canadian forces commanded by Lt. Gen. Sir Miles C. Dempsey and American forces commanded by Lt. Gen. Omar N. Bradley deployed against 50 miles of coast line. Aerial bombardment of beach defenses along the coast began at 0314, preliminary naval bombardment at 0550, shortly after sunrise. At 0630 the first waves of assault infantry and tanks landed on the invasion beaches.

German defenses on all beaches were formidable; they consisted of first of bands of underwater obstacles designed to break up formations of landing craft; mines were freely used to make these obstacles more lethal. The beaches themselves were heavily mined and strung with wire. Concrete pillboxes and gun emplacements were sited to deliver withering crossfire along the beaches. All exits leading inland from the beaches were blocked by anti-tank walls and ditches, mine fields, and barbed wire. Further inland, mortars and artillery were sited to deliver indirect fire on the beaches. Open fields were blocked against glider landings by patterns of heavy stakes, but complete intelligence gathered up to the moment of assault provided detailed knowledge of enemy dispositions and enabled the troops to breach the defenses.

rying passengers is that though the crew could bail out, the passengers can't. They haven't been trained in parachute jumping, and no crew can desert a ship ahead of its passengers.

One reason why U. S. pilots in China are now burned up is that many of them have to carry Chinese troops into the battle area for Chiang Kai-Shek. Imagine the panic if 50 or 60 Chinese troop passengers all tried to bail out.

It should be noted that this situation is not the fault of the Air

Beachhead Secured

In the American sector, the beach areas totaled 10,000 yards in length. Every 75 yards a landing craft loaded with assault infantry touched down at H-hour. Assault veterans charged down the ramps, picked their way through the bands of obstacles, and immediately provided cover for the work of naval and engineer demolition crews which followed close behind. Each crew had a specific task to perform in clearing lanes for subsequent waves of craft carrying infantry, artillery, vehicles, and supplies. Naval gunfire and air bombardment hammered artillery and mortar positions, pillboxes, and gun emplacements.

Resistance by German ground elements was stubborn, and bitter fighting developed in many sectors. Our long campaign against the Luftwaffe had greatly weakened its capacity for combat and, as a result, there was no effective air opposition to our highly vulnerable initial landings. Reinforcements continued to pour ashore, and by nightfall on D-day, five American divisions, the 1st, 4th, 29th, and 82nd and 101st Airborne, with tanks, artillery and other reinforcements, were firmly established. Also ashore were advance detachments of the headquarters of Maj. Gen. Leonard T. Gerow's V Corps and Maj. Gen. J. Lawton Collins' VII Corps. The British build-up in their sector was on a corresponding scale. Additional divisions still afloat were being landed in a steady stream.

By the second morning it was clear that the beachhead was secure and that the greatest and longest step toward the destruction of the German armies of the west had been taken. The "crust" of the German coastal defense system had been broken. The German boast that an invading force could not remain ashore for nine hours had been flung back on the now desperate defenders.

Shortly after D-day the Combined Chiefs of Staff met in London in order to be immediately available should an emergency arise requiring a prompt decision on some matter beyond General Eisenhower's jurisdiction as Supreme Commander. The assault went so well that it was possible on 12 June for the Combined Chiefs to visit the beaches of Normandy and observe at first hand the magnitude of the undertaking and the gallant and skillful manner in which the Allied forces were overcoming the resistance of the veteran German soldiers.

Some congressmen were considerably irked at the way Army-Navy football tickets were allocated chiefly to the brass hats, also regarding the number of tickets getting into the hands of scalpers. The latter were peddling tickets for $50 each. . . . Deadline for buying congressional tickets is supposed to be October 23, but when Senators Langer of North Dakota, Mead of New York, and Murray of Montana applied on that day, they were told: "Too late, no tickets". . . . Dr. Darnell,
 Dentist, Will Practice Here

Dr. J. P. Darnell, who practiced dentistry here for about a year before entering military service, has returned to Sedalia and will open offices Monday on the third floor of the Igenfritz building. Dr.
 Darnell, a captain in the Army
 Dental Corps, is on terminal leave which will end Friday.

Taking over the practice of the late Dr. A. G. Hausam, he formerly was located in the Water company building.

Dr. Darnell went into service in June of 1941, and left the United States one year later for overseas duty with the 98th Engineer Regiment. After being stationed in Scotland and England he moved into the North African invasion in November, 1942, with the Second
 Army Corps.

Returning to the States after two years of foreign service, the captain was assigned for a short time to the Redistribution Station at Hot Springs, Ark., and then to the Glennan General Hospital at Okmulgee, Okla., where he served until his discharge the first of October. He had accumulated 90 points.

Upon his entry in the army Dr.
 Darnell was the only officer in an engineer regiment at Camp Bowie, Texas, for several months, and for his work in handling the troops he received a letter of commendation from the camp commander.
 The dentist had served in the National Guard for six years, as an enlisted man, with Battery D, 161st Field Artillery, of Kansas, and with Headquarters detachment, 35th division, of the Missouri National Guard.

He is a graduate of Kansas City
 Western Dental college, now a part of Kansas City university, and had two years of undergraduate work at Central Missouri State Teachers college. He interned for two years at State Hospital No. 3, at Nevada, prior to coming to Sedalia in 1940.

Dr. and Mrs. Darnell and their eight-month-old son, James Paul II, reside at 1409 West Fifth street.

County Tuberculosis Society Carries on Excellent Program

The Pettis County Tuberculosis association has available to the county medical society for case finding tuberculin patch tests and X-ray service including taking of films and interpretation by a tuberculosis specialist in Kansas City, an explanation of the association's help in tuberculosis control reveals.

The local program for tuberculosis control includes close relationship with the county medical society, the social security office, the county public health nurse, the county court, and the county tuberculosis association. Most referrals come from the county medical society to the county public health nurse.

The usual routine is to have X-rays made on the person presenting symptoms of tuberculosis, the film being sent to a tuberculosis specialist in Kansas City for interpretation. If X-ray findings are positive for tuberculosis, then sputum tests are made. The county public health nurse, at the request of the private physician, presents the case to the county court for application for admission to the Missouri State Sanatorium at Mt. Vernon.

At the time of referral to Mt. Vernon an X-ray report, the private physician's findings, and the sputum reports are all made available for the physician at Mt. Vernon, giving him a picture as to age, present symptoms, family history, and laboratory findings, as all these factors assist him in making his decision on how soon the patient should be admitted.

Home Visits
A home visit is made by the county nurse who instructs the patient about the articles of clothing and personal belongings which he will need at Mt. Vernon. Also discussed is the proper care of dishes, proper disposal of sputum, and general precautions to be taken to protect other members of the family.

In some instances the patient will need financial assistance in getting ready to go to Mt. Vernon. If the patient happens to be the wage earner in the family, the

Graduated As Honor Student

U. S. NAVAL AIR STATION,
Jacksonville, Fla.—Leon A. Kettle, of Sedalia, Mo., who is training to be a U. S. Naval Aircrewman, graduated last week as an honor student from aerial gunners school here, it was announced.

Leon A. Kettle

Son of Mr. and Mrs. H. R. Kettle, the 18-year-old bluejacket previously completed a course at aviation machinist school in Norman, Okla. He was advanced to the petty officer rating of aviation machinist's mate third class at graduation from gunnery school.

Kettle is now scheduled for advanced training. He enlisted in the Navy February 1, 1945.

Low Bids For Roads—Bridges

JEFFERSON CITY, Dec. 1.—(AP)—Contractors submitted low bids totaling $916,231 Friday for the first projects to be built as part of Missouri's $90,000,000 postwar road program.

Most of the projects are on supplementary roads. Contracts will be let later, subject to approval of federal engineers and the state commission which meets Dec. 11.

Low offers in today's bid opening include:
Pettis county—407 miles of grade and two bridges over Flat creek and Flat creek overflow, Sedalia southeast to Morgan county line, Otto W. Knudsen, Kansas City, $59,085.

Morgan county—9.01 miles of grade and surface on highway 50, route 52 and route E, Davis Construction company, Boonville, $59,267.

Looking Backward Forty Years Ago

The Thiebes-Stierlin Music Co., of which J. H. Clemens is the competent and genial manager, has leased, for three years, of the Porter Real Estate Co., the vacant storeroom, 516 South Ohio street, and will remove there before the 15th inst. from its present stand, 404 South Ohio street, upstairs.

Owing to the sickness of Laura Millard, leading lady of "The Geisha" Co., their engagement at the New Sedalia theater was cancelled for Friday night.

The office and salesroom of the Singer Sewing Machine company will be removed on December 15 from No. 106 West Main street to No. 114 East Third street.

Herman Egdorf, U.S. Army, who has been here on a three-month furlough, left Friday afternoon for Arizona to join his command.

An engineer for the Missouri and Kansas Telephone Co., was in Sedalia a couple of days the past week, arranging for the removal of all overhead wires in the business district in the not-distant future, and placing them underground, as is done in the larger cities.

Bonds Are Posted

Cars of the following were tagged Saturday: S. E. Smith, 1614 West Main street, overtime parking, posted $100 bond, Charles Evans of Main street and Washington avenue overtime parking, also posted $100 bond, Dixie Mahon, 1514 South Ohio avenue was charged with overtime parking and posted $100 bond. Also charged with the same offenses R. W. Towner, of 521 East Eleventh street, Clay Leftwich of Hughesville, Roy Huffman of 1817 South Kentucky avenue. $100 bonds were posted in both cases.

Norlen Dawson
Twice Arrested

Norlen Dawson, South Osage avenue, just couldn't stay out of the clutches of the police Saturday. He was arrested twice, the first time about 4 o'clock in the afternoon for common assault upon Richard Anderson, 100 block East Main street, and then later about 7 o'clock Saturday night at a tavern on West Main street when he attacked Buck Harmon.

Dawson after his first arrest was given a "break" being released on a $50 cash bond, but when police were called to arrest him again he was lodged in the city jail to await his "double" trial in police court Monday morning.

Police said they were tired of getting calls on Dawson and decided he could "cool off" in jail a lot better than releasing him on bonds.

Traffic Cases

Charles Nelson 209 East Boonville and Mrs. E. A. McElroy, 227 South Quincy avenue, forfeited one-dollar cash bonds on overtime parking charges when they did not appear in police court Saturday morning.

Joint Chiefs Be Continued*Two Setups Of Roosevelt To Be Given Support

WASHINGTON, Dec. 1.—(AP)—Two setups which the late President Roosevelt created for wartime appeared tonight to have support of both the army and navy for continuance of peacetime despite their dispute over a merger.

These are:

1. The joint chiefs of staff, the top group of army, navy and air force commanders.
2. The chief of staff for the President as commander-in-chief.

Senators will learn about wartime operations of both next week when Admiral William D. Leahy, only officer ever to serve as chief of staff for a president, testifies Tuesday before the military committee conducting the lengthy hearings on legislative proposals for a single department of the services. Leahy was selected by President Roosevelt when he set up the post in the White House and has continued to serve President Truman.

All war department spokesmen have urged speedy action on unification of the armed forces into a single cabinet department with co-equal land, sea and ground forces.

Every navy department witness has opposed such a consolidation with the frank argument that the smaller peacetime navy would be in an unfavorable minority position.

Despite this clash most generals and admirals, as well as civilian secretaries, urge that congress give legal and permanent status to the joint chiefs setup and the special presidential advisor.

Rear Admiral Forrest P. Sherman, latest navy witness, said that "in Washington unity of operational command can and should be adequately achieved under the President by the joint chiefs of staff and their numerous subordinate agencies."

"The membership of this civilian organization, many of whom have served in both branches of the armed services or have kin in both branches of the services, trust you will not become the first President of the United States to dislocate the military balance of this Democracy in favor of a rule by a military clique which is now using the word unification as a means of attaining its end."

"The proposed merging of the army and the navy under a single dictatorship is patently a grab for power although this purpose is well disguised. It will prove to be not a merging but a submerging of our first line of attack and defense, namely sea-air power."

"If the proposal is so obviously in the nation's interest let there be something more than a cursory study and the jumping at fallacious conclusions."

Kenneth Dick
Out Of Army

T Sgt. Kenneth H. Dick, son of Mr. and Mrs. Herman H. Dick of 615 West Fifth Street, recently arrived home from Alaska. He received his honorable discharge from the Army Air Force November 26, at Ft. Leavenworth, Kansas.

T Sgt. Kenneth H. Dick enlisted in the Army Air Force immediately after graduation from Smith-Cotton high school and was inducted into the army July 12, 1940 at Ft. Leavenworth, Kansas. From there he was sent to Randolph Field, Texas, and was stationed there until 1942. From there he went to the Bombardier Training School at Big Springs, Texas where he was stationed until June 17, 1945. At this time he was sent to Elmendorf Field, Alaska, as a maintenance specialist.

In 1941 he was temporarily sent to Chanute Field, Ill., where he completed a 20-week course in airplane mechanics. Here he received instruction in the theory and practical repair work on military aircraft and engines.

At the time of his discharge, T Sgt. Dick was serving as Airplane Flight Chief. He had charge of servicing, maintaining, and repairing C-45, AT-11, and P-38 type aircraft.

He has to his credit the Good Conduct Medal, American Defense Service Ribbon, American Theater Ribbon, Asiatic-Pacific Theater Ribbon and Victory Ribbon.

His wife and three-year-old son, Richard Dan, went to St. Louis to meet him and will remain here with him for a visit of several days.

Kain, who was with the 14th Replacement Depot, has been in the army approximately three years.

Charged Of Assault With A Monkey Wrench

Walter Brown was arrested Saturday evening in a Main street tavern by Officers Estes and Butler and charged with assault with a deadly weapon. He reportedly assaulted the owner of the tavern with a monkey wrench after an argument. He is being held in the city jail.

Booked For Disturbance

William McCracken, of California, Mo., was arrested at a cafe Saturday and booked at police headquarters for being drunk and disturbing the peace. He is being held in the city jail.

Granted A Divorce

In the Pettis county circuit court, Saturday, Sterling W. Laughlin was granted a divorce from Gertrude K. Laughlin. Palmer and Palmer represented the plaintiff.

Sedalian
Seabee, Home

Leslie O. Bennington PO 1/c U. S. Navy Seabees, has returned to Sedalia after twenty-six months in the service. Bennington received his discharge at Lambert Field, St. Louis last Wednesday and is now with his family, Mrs. Bennington and their two children, at their home 810 South Carr avenue.

He arrived in the States, at Seattle, Wash., from Okinawa, on Saturday, November 15, and remained aboard ship for three days before going ashore and starting to St. Louis where he was discharged.

Bennington experienced three typhoons, among them being the last on Okinawa, which caused loss of life and did several million dollars worth of damage to Navy, Marine and Army equipment. The day the typhoon struck he was at a Marine camp visiting with Lloyd Bowers, Sedalia, and while there received the warning the typhoon was three hours from the island. With another Seabee they rushed back to their base and was there when the storm struck.

Bound Over To Higher Court

Ollie Whitley, Negro, north Mill street, was bound over for trial in the criminal court after he waived a preliminary hearing before Magistrate C. W. Bente, sitting as ex-officio justice of the peace, Saturday afternoon, on a charge of driving a car while intoxicated. Whitley was arrested about 11:30 o'clock Friday night following an accident on the West Main street road, when he hit a concrete bridge about a mile west of the city limits.

Whitley was picked up in a taxi cab. He told a story of being hi-jacked at Main street and Grand avenue, and was taken to police headquarters where he was questioned. He told officers that he was stopped at Main and Grand by red lights and two men beat, robbed him and took the car and drove away. However, as the questioning proceeded his story varied so that officers locked him in jail.

The car a 1938 Buick sedan belonged to Mrs. Eddie Bryant in Kansas City. The car evidently was being driven at a fast rate of speed when it crashed into the concrete abutment. More than $300 damages resulted to the automobile which was towed to police headquarters by Arnold's wrecker.

Whitley is being held in the county jail in default of bond.

Californians
Visiting Here

Mr. and Mrs. George H. Meyer and baby daughter, Karen Marie, of Oakland, California, are visiting their parents, Mr. and Mrs. Clifford Mawhorter of 1226 West Main street and Mr. and Mrs. Harry P. Meyer and other relatives.

Enroute to Sedalia they visited with Mr. Meyer's brother and wife, Mr. and Mrs. Ralph Meyer of El Centro, Calif., who was recently discharged from the Marines.

They plan to return to El Centro after a two weeks visit here. Mr. George H. Meyer was an A.M.M. 1/c in the Navy and received his discharge November 8 at Shumaker, California. He has been stationed at the Oakland Air Base the past two years.

T-5 Harold Kain Is Home From Overseas

T-5 Harold Kain, of Kansas City, son of Mr. and Mrs. Joe Kain, 906 West Fourth street, is now at Jefferson Barracks after service in the European theatre of war, awaiting his discharge and expects to be in Sedalia Tuesday.

His wife and three-year-old son, Richard Dan, went to St. Louis to meet him and will remain here with him for a visit of several days.

Kain, who was with the 14th Replacement Depot, has been in the army approximately three years.

Mrs. Kaiser Improves

Mrs. H. A. Kaiser, 719 East Fourteenth street, who underwent a major and minor operation at Research hospital in Kansas City November 12, has returned to her home and is improving. Mrs. Kaiser is still confined to her bed and will be for at least four more weeks.

She was brought to Sedalia by Mr. Kaiser the past week.

Fined Twenty-Five Dollars

Oral Lewis, Palo, Mo., arrested in the 200 block on East Third street, pleaded guilty to Magistrate C. W. Bente in police court Saturday morning to being drunk and disturbing the peace and was fined $25 which he paid.

Mrs. Frank Leach Assisted in
S. A. Anniversary Celebration

Mrs. Frank S. Leach, has returned from an extended visit in Kansas City where she assisted with the 80th anniversary of the Salvation Army. Kansas City joined with others throughout the world in paying honor to the men and women who have devoted their lives to this cause, and the world saluted the Salvation Army on Sunday the 18th of November and its achievements of the first 80 years of its life on all war fronts and in 94 countries. This occasion was held in the Municipal Auditorium arena and that huge place was filled to overflowing from the doors to the highest balconies. The largest stage ever put in the arena was built for this event and prominent people were present from over United States.

The Lindsborg Bethany College Oratorio Society, Hagbard Brase, conductor, with 500 voices was brought by special train to Kansas City for this event. They gave magnificent rendition from Handel's Messiah and the Hallelujah Chorus accompanied by the Kansas City Philharmonic Orchestra, Efrim Kurtz, conductor. Several fine selections were given by the Philharmonic, also the Chicago Staff Band and the Kansas City Divisional Band assisted in musical numbers.

Those Responsible

The Advisory Board of the Salvation Army and other friends were responsible for the financial expense of this celebration which General Evangeline Booth said was the most beautiful and perfect thing she had ever witnessed in her travels around the world, where she has been feted by kings, queens and rulers of the earth. The list of the names of Kansas Citizens responsible for this event include such persons as Mayor John B. Gage, Grant Stauffer, W. E. Bixby, Ruby D. Garrett, Rev. W. Niles, Mrs. Jack Nourse, Dr. Richard Sutton, Sr., Fred Wolfman, Fred Goldman, Dean Claude Sproule, L. P. Cookingham, Rabi Samuel S. Mayerburg, H. Roe Bartle, and many others.

The afternoon celebration opened with Mrs. Leach's march of colors and pageant of the 94 nations of the world in which the Salvation Army has operated through the years. The young women representing the nations wore authentic costumes of those nations.

The Public Library assistants were most helpful, cooperating with a professional costumer in the selection and combinations of colorful costumes. Three hundred and seventy-five persons participated in this part of the program. Mrs. Leach had the cooperation and assistance of Gen. Harry Gambrel, Col. George W. Fisk of the 3rd Missouri National Guard with Major McDonnell and 10 captains and lieutenants of the National Guard in the mobilization work, also Harry Moore of the American Legion. This large group of people included the American Legion, Veterans of Foreign Wars, Disabled War Veterans, Order of the Purple Heart, Red Cross, and the ROTC, under the direction of Major Herndon, Professor of Military Science for the high schools of Kansas City. All of the lighting effects and equipment of the Municipal Auditorium were used in this presentation.

Elaborate Programs

Lt. Col. and Mrs. Victor Lundgren of Kansas City, Commanders of the West Missouri and Kansas area of the Salvation Army were the hosts and responsible for this national celebration of the 80th anniversary of the Salvation Army. Very elaborate programs were gotten out including pictures of Gen. William Booth, the founder, Evangeline Booth, the Kansas City Philharmonic orchestra, the Bethany College Oratorio Society, and all facts pertaining to the celebration.

Among the people participating in the program were General Evangeline Booth of New York, classed as one of the greatest women in the world and a famous orator; Gen. George C. Marshall, Chief of Staff of the United States Military forces of World War II; Mr. Alf Landon, former governor of Kansas; Commissioner Ernest L. Pugmire, New York; Commissioner John Allen, Chicago; Commissioner William McIntire of Florida; Mr. Grant Stauffer; Commissioner William Allen, Atlanta, Ga.; Mayor Gage, Hon. Brice B. Smith, Kansas City; Commissioner Donald McMillan, New York City; Rabbi Samuel Mayerburg and Dean Claude Sproule of Kansas City.

The soloist for the afternoon's program was Major Hanson Gifford of New York City.

"The Spider," 20th Century-Fox's thrill-packed story of a strangling terror that gripped the hearts of thousands: of a suave detective who, with a gun in his hand and a girl in his arms, was nothing short of murder; and of a woman whose exciting beauty held the key to the secret that shocked a city, opens today at the Liberty Theatre. Heading the outstanding cast of the exciting hit are Richard Conte, Faye Marlowe, Kurt Kreuger, John Harvey, Martin Kosleck, Mantan Moreland, Walter Sande and Cara Williams.

Talk on Mexico
At Hughesville
Club Meeting

The November meeting of Hughesville Parent-Teacher association, held Wednesday evening in the school auditorium, had as its principal feature a speech on Mexico by Irwin Raut of Sedalia, who, with Mrs. Raut, spent the past year in that country—he as a teacher and his wife as a tourist. The speaker was introduced by Mrs. Ray Tegtmeyer, program chairman.

"Mrs. Raut and I were nearing Mexico City where I taught English in a boys' school, unofficially, as officially none but Mexicans can teach there," the speaker stated,
"when a taxi driver ran into us,
knocking off our car's bumper.
The driver and I went peacefully together to police court where an interpreter informed me, 'If your window was open, the other man pays—if closed, you pay.' Going to the car, he found my window closed, so I paid the fine. How differently our two countries do things."

Talk on Mexico
Mr. Raut reviewed the history of Mexico from the time of the Spaniard Cortez, 300 years ago, and told of their flowers, their food and its preparation, and their habits. He showed pictures of ornamental churches, homes, bull fights, costumes, etc., of that country and concluded his talk by saying that Mexico City, with a population of 2,000,000, had 30,000
American tourists last summer.

The president of the PTA presided over the business session, the devotional service was led by Mrs.
Homer Cunningham. It was announced that the December meeting will not be held, thus January 30, 1946, will be the next meeting date.

The social committee, Mrs. Das
McClure, Mrs. Everett Vannoy and Mrs. Cranfill served pie and coffee following a short talk by Lawson Smith, who has returned from Panama where he had been stationed the past three years.

ters in St. Louis, was at the shops last Friday on business.

C. R. Kilbury, shop superintendent, L. B. Herfurth, forging supervisor, and J. M. Blue, roller bearing supervisor, were in St.
Louis Friday where they attended the monthly staff meeting of Missouri Pacific officials.

Edward Witt, recently returned to Sedalia after receiving his discharge from the Seabees on points after serving two years in the South Pacific. Mr. Witt resumed his duties as a machinist at the local Missouri Pacific shops.

C. L. Wingate, machinist apprentice, I. W. Ison, car helper,
H. D. Cloth, blacksmith helper,

Never met a warmer welcome anywhere!

★ "Well now, young fellow . . . that's right nice of you. 'Course, old Santa Claus always expects a warm welcome wherever the pup is furnace man."

Santa knows that homes enjoying the comforts and conveniences of automatic gas heating were not so equipped merely to please guests.

To the contrary, he knows several good reasons why every member of the family has a warm spot in his heart for the faithful gas heating unit.

Dad registers satisfaction as he surveys the heating bills, glad that all the advantages of automatic gas heating are his for so little cost. Mother is grateful for release from the constant coaxing and attention the old furnace demanded, looks with pride on her floors, her furniture and draperies no longer smudged by soot and dirt from mussy fuels. And the youngsters?
They are happy as larks in the grand playroom (Dad still insists it's his "rumpus room") that the space-saving gas equipment made possible.

If yours is one of the families not now enjoying automatic gas heating, no doubt you will want it as soon as it again becomes available. Our organization is at your service to see that you get the best in equipment which will give complete freedom from heating worries . . . and at a price which any homeowner can take with a smile.

Suicides By Some Internees

Follows Start Of Deporting To Occupied Region

By Robert N. Sturdevant

STOCKHOLM, Dec. 1 — (P)—Hundreds of Germans and other military internees attempted suicide with knives, razors and bits of glass today as their deportation to Russian-occupied Europe began, Swedish newspaper dispatches said.

The wave of attempted mass suicides was reported to have broken out when Swedish authorities began moving 2,700 men from four internment camps by train to put them aboard the Russian deportation ship Kuban at Tralieborg.

As many as 1,000 suffered serious self-inflicted wounds, early reports said.

Most of the 2,700 held in the four camps are Germans. The rest are Austrians, Poles, Lithuanians, Estonians and Latvians. Details of the camp scenes as reported in Stockholm included:

Used Knives As Instruments

One group of 60 Germans formed a tightly packed ring as their leader, a Captain Kuhn, plunged a knife into his breast. Several others followed suit. Police beat some internees with clubs to prevent further self-injury. In one group, Germans shouted: "Stab me. Stab me here."

At one time more than 70 Germans from several barracks lay on the ground bleeding. Others tore their clothes and were bundled half naked into waiting transports.

At another camp at Backama, 100 German officers barricaded themselves in barracks. When police finally broke in, the place was splashed with blood spurting from severed arm and leg arteries. Five ambulances raced back and forth from the camp to a nearby hospital.

Some deportation trains nevertheless got underway at midday. Still other prisoners were too weak to be moved because of a hunger strike originated by a group of 167 Lithuanians, Latvians and Estonians who had served with the German army.

Swedish officials announced that the Russians had turned down a request that all 2,700 be sent to Luebeck, in the British zone. Instead, only a few who fled to Sweden before May 1, 1945, will be sent to the western occupied area, with the remainder going to the Soviet zone where they had served as soldiers.

This morning the Germans were granted 10 minutes to decide whether they would move off voluntarily or by force as Swedish units surrounded the camps. In spite of safety measures, streams of stretchers soon began moving toward dressing stations as the prisoners attacked themselves.

Two Russian minesweepers carrying Russian guards who will supervise the prisoners' sea trip were expected at Tralieborg late today. The Kuban was expected to start loading tonight, and sail either tomorrow or Sunday.

More than $50,000,000 is spent digging dry holes, or oil wells that, annually in the United States, produce no oil.

Mrs. John Fowler, of the devotional service and 20 members answered roll call by telling what they were thankful for. The nominating committee reported that all officers will retain their offices for the coming year. After the reading of the news letter by Mrs. William Williams, Mrs. Walter Rissler read the health letter. A thank-you card from Miss Dorothy Bacon was read by Mrs. John Sutherland.

A demonstration on sewing machine attachments and their uses was given by Mrs. M. C. Ford.

Visitors were Mrs. C. E. Cashner, Mrs. Louis Templeire, Miss Alice Alexander and Mrs. Floyd Bardwell.

Congestion Looms
In Holidays Traffic

CHICAGO, Dec. 1—(P)—President J. J. Pelly of the Association of American railroads said Friday that December would bring "the worst situation we've ever had" in passenger travel congestion but 60 to 90 days from now "we ought to be over the hump."

Pelly told a news conference after the association's annual meeting that the nation's railroads were being forced to leave passengers behind as overcrowded trains pulled out and "it will be worse in December."

The obvious reason, he said, is the tremendous load involved in moving returning troops coupled with the normal holiday.

Mr. and Mrs. P. S. Gordon, 1617 South Sneed street, announce the engagement and approaching marriage of their daughter Velma Alice, to Alphonse V. Domingue, son of Mrs. Emelia V. Domingue, 858 Middle street, Fall River, Massachusetts.

Mrs. D. P. Dyer will head the December-January social committee at the Sedalia Country club and will be in charge of the annual holiday festivities, the Christmas night and the New Year's eve dances.

Members of her committee are: Mrs. W. F. Keyser, Mrs. C. G. Wilson, Mrs. J. J. Chipman, Mrs. M. C. Abeles, Mrs. Heber Hunt, Mrs. J. C. Latimer, Mrs. C. A. Jenkins, Mrs. Carl Urban, Mrs. Harry Brougher, Mrs. Herman Bloess, Mrs. H. O. Foraker, Mrs. Stanley E. Bremer, Mrs. W. A. Schien, Mrs. Hugo M. Sparr, Miss Agnes Quinn, Mrs. J. J. Donlon, Mrs. Roy Kirchhoffer, Mrs. A. M. Hoffman, Mrs. C. H. Harrison, Mrs. Leon Archias and Mrs. Maurice Griffin.

A committee meeting will be held the first of this week and cards will be sent to members outlining activities for the next two months.

The Thursday 1 o'clock luncheon and card party will be held this week, with reservations to be made by Tuesday noon, and players to make up their own tables.

Last Thursday afternoon bridge winners were Mrs. Calvin Tucker of Atlanta, Ga., Mrs. J. R. Knox and Mrs. H. C. Salveter. Mrs. J. C. Griffin held honors in Mah Jongg.

Mrs. D. P. Dyer will have a meeting of her committee at 4:15 o'clock Monday afternoon at the Country club to make plans for activities to be held at the Country club during the months of December and January.

Mr. Emil Neef, 315 West Fifth street, entertained a small group of friends with a quail dinner at the Country club Friday evening in honor of Mr. and Mrs. Calvin Tucker of Atlanta, Ga., who are staying at the Hotel Bothwell during their visit in Sedalia.

Miss Marian Wade, who will be married soon to Lt. George Whitehouse, was honored Friday evening with a miscellaneous shower given by Miss Norma Lee Kindred and Miss LaVern Broyles at Miss Kindred's home, 1308 South Kentucky avenue.

The evening was spent in playing Liverpool rummy with awards going to Miss Frankie June Rodgers and Miss Marian Wade.

The bride-to-be found her gifts beneath a pink and white umbrella.

Invited guests were Miss Wade, her mother, Mrs. Wade, Miss Joann Connelly, Miss Dorothy Sue Roe, Miss Frankie June Rodgers, Miss Betty Lee Englund, Miss Genevieve Sullivan, Miss Jane Reed, Miss Margaret Ann Wade, and Miss Evelyn Beach.

The young hostesses were assisted in entertaining by their mothers, Mrs. Vernon Broyles and Mrs. Vivian Kindred.

Miss Nell Hurley, of St. Louis, is spending the week end with her parents, Mr. and Mrs. W. P. Hurley, Fourth street and Dal-Whi-Mo Court.

Miss Hurley, as real estate editor for the St. Louis Globe-Democrat, returned to St. Louis Thursday night from French Lick, Ind., where she attended the National Real Estate convention as a staff representative.

The American Association of University Women will meet Monday at 8 p. m. at the home of Mrs. Rex H. Anderson, 901 South Quincy avenue. A musical program will be presented.

THE IDEAL CHRISTMAS GIFT

Engaged

Miss Velma Alice Gordon, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. P. S. Gordon, 1617 South Sneed street, whose engagement to Alphonse V. Domingue, of Fall River, Mass., is announced today by her parents.

ried to Mr. Hosford in Ohio on November 29, 1887, and have lived in Sedalia many years. Mr. Hosford, who is a retired Missouri Pacific employee, has been ill for the past three weeks but is now greatly improved and able to sit up.

Mr. and Mrs. Hosford have four children, William C. Hosford and Mrs. J. T. Hutchinson, both of the home, James H. Hosford, 1111 South Massachusetts avenue and Mrs. W. E. Mitchell, of Cleveland, O., and five grandchildren.

"A beautiful double ring wedding ceremony was solemnized in the West Christiania Lutheran church Thursday morning, November 1, at 11 o'clock, when Alta Ann Ellingboe, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Albert Ellingboe, became the bride of Samuel A. Mahnken MM 1 c. U. S. Navy, son of Mr. and Mrs. Albert Mahnken of Cole Camp, Missouri. Rev. W. L. Peterson officiated" states the Dakota County Tribune, of Farmington, Minn., November 16 issue.

Continuing the account of the wedding reads: "An appropriate selection of music was played by Beatrice Peterson. For the processional she played 'The Bells of St. Mary,' and Wagner's 'Wedding March.' For the recessional she played Mendelssohn's Wedding March. She wore a corsage of American beauty roses and white gardenias.

"The bride wore a lovely white satin gown with fitted bodice with a row of tiny buttons in back, sweetheart neckline, and leg-of-mutton sleeves that came to a point over the wrist. The skirt was web-net over satin, shirred and fashioned into a long train. Small satin designs trimmed the front of the net skirt. Her fingertip veil of imported net was held in place by a pearl beaded bandeau. The veil was worn over her face before the exchange of vows and turned back just before the recessional. Her jewelry consisted of a single strand pearl necklace, and pearl earrings. She carried a small white Bible, from which hung long white satin streamers, caught with lilies of the valley. The bride was given in marriage by her father.

"Dorothy Bernice Ellingboe, sister of the bride, was maid of honor, and wore a pale blue dress. Mrs. Clyde Roberts, sister of the groom, was matron of honor and wore a pale yellow dress. The three bridesmaids were Viola Markuson, friend of the bride, who wore aqua; Hazel Ellingboe, sister of the bride, and Ruby Ellingboe, cousin of the bride. Hazel and Ruby were twin bridesmaids, dressed identically in peach-pink net over taffeta, with fuchsia colored chapel veils. All of the other attendants wore matching chapel veils, and gowns similarly fashioned with sweetheart necklines, short sleeves, fitted bodices and full skirts of net.

They all wore elbow-length white gloves, white sandals, single strand of pearls, and pearl earrings. They carried matching chiffon dinner hankies, gifts of the bride.

"Patrick and Patricia, twin sister and brother of the groom, were ring bearer and flower girl. Patricia wore a sheer white floor-length gown, styled almost identically to the bride's and she also wore elbowlength white gloves and pearl necklace, and carried a white lace hanky, a gift of the bride. Her headress was a long white ribbon, tied with a large bow. Patrick wore a sailor suit and carried the ring on a white velvet pillow.

"Colonial bouquets of fuchsia colored pompons and American beauty roses and white roses, with long white streamers were carried by all the bride's attendants.

"The groom wore his Navy uniform. The best man, Ray Speck R. O. T. C. student at the University of Minnesota, and former classmate of the groom, wore his uniform also. The ushers were Oscar Ellingboe and Ed Ellingboe, cousins of the bride, Albert Ellingboe, Jr., brother of the bride, and Elmer Rich, R. O. T. C. student at the University of Minnesota, and former classmate of the groom, who also wore his uniform. The other gentlemen wore dark suits.

"Palms and candelabrum with tall white candles adorned the front of the church.

"The mother of the bride wore a black brocaded crepe dress with black accessories and a corsage of fuchsia and yellow pompons and American beauty roses. The groom's mother wore a dark green dress with black accessories and a corsage of fuchsia and yellow pompons and white roses. With the exception of those in uniform, the men all wore white carnation boutonnieres.

Usherettes were Mrs. Dale Quinell, friend of the bride, and Evelyn Ellingboe, cousin of the bride. Both wore floor length gowns and white carnations.

"A reception for about 200 guests was held in the church parlors following the ceremony. The bride's table was centered with a beautiful five tier wedding cake, topped with a cluster of white bells and orange blossoms. Waitresses were Violet Hansen, Alice Olson, Veola Soberg and Ramona Astelford, all wearing dark dresses and white organdie tea aprons. Those assisting with the lunch were Mrs. L. O. Larson, Mrs. George Rademacher, Mrs. Emil Chahk, Mrs. Charles Hansen, Mrs. Ragna Markuson, Mrs. Albert Olson and Mrs. Oscar Wahl.

"The couple were showered with many beautiful and useful gifts at the reception.

"At 7:00 p. m. a full course dinner was served at the bride's home to about 50 guests.

"The newlyweds left Thursday evening for a short honeymoon in the Twin Cities before the groom's return to the Pacific coast for further duty. For going away the bride wore a gray gabardine suit with brown accessories.

"The bride is a graduate of Lakeville high school, class of '42, and has attended Cables Business college in St. Paul, after which she was employed in the office of Sears Roebuck and Co., of Minneapolis for eight months. For the past 18 months she was employed at the Toro Mfg. Corp. as stenographer. The groom graduated from Cole Camp, Missouri, high school in 1940, and entered the Navy just after graduation. He served overseas until March 1, 1944, when he entered the V-12 program at Northwestern University, Evanston, Illinois. After eight months at Northwestern, he was transferred to St. Thomas college, St. Paul, for six months, and is now serving aboard the USS Sador C. V. E. 117.

"They plan to make their home in Minneapolis after June 1, 1946, when the groom will receive his discharge from the Navy, upon expiration of his 6-year enlistment.

Mail Cards By December 10

"They're Still in the Service" heads a postal bulletin picturing carriers leaving a post office laden with mail—"Help them get your Christmas cards and packages delivered before Christmas day."

Postmaster Edward P. Mullaley, pointing out that he had been advised by Postmaster General Robert E. Hannegan that the public should be informed of the necessity for early mailing of Christmas cards and parcels due to the shortage of trained employees throughout the postal service, stated that only through the cooperation of the mailing public will it be possible to handle this year's anticipated record volume of holiday mail.

Important Facts to Remember:

1. Mail all Christmas cards and packages by December 10.
2. Address correctly; wrap securely.
3. Don't mail armfuls of cards and packages all at once. Space out your mailing over a few days' time.
4. Many people have moved to new addresses. Christmas cards sent by first class mail will be forwarded.

Give Gifts To Yanks Who Gave

This is the final week for gifts to be turned in for hospitalized veterans. The need is much greater this year as there are 100,000 in veterans hospitals, 300,000 in military installations, 50,000 in state veterans institutions and 50,000 in rest camps and convalescent centers.

Since gift packages are to be uniform, the ladies of the American Legion Auxiliary are wrapping packages. Each package is to contain from $2.50 to $4.00 in merchandise and each is to be labeled so that legless persons will not receive house slippers and socks, and blind persons will not receive books, etc.

Gifts may be left at Heuer Shoe Store, City Light Company and Suter Plumbing Shop. Any gifts for both men and women are acceptable except food which is forbidden by the Medics.

An Army Victory Over Navy 32 to 13

Strong Army Is Slowed Up By The Navy

Cadets Big Quarter Is First: Navy Then Comes To Life And Game Goes On Even

By Gale Talbot
PHILADELPHIA, Dec. 1.—(P)—Army's star-spangled array struck swiftly for three touchdowns in the opening period and defeated Navy, 32 to 13, as scheduled today, but not without being given a genuine dogfight by the Middles in the final grueling 45 minutes of their annual football struggle.

A crowd of 102,000 in Municipal Stadium, including President Truman, saw the Tars recover from the opening shocks of the Cadets' offensive and not only avert what had threatened to become a shambles, but play the vaunted West pointers on virtually even terms for the greater part of the contest.

The difference in the final analysis—that which gave the golden-helmeted Cadets their 18th straight victory and their second national football championship—was the ripping, tearing running of those two great All-America backs, Glenn Davis and Felix (Doc) Blanchard.

Blanchard Reels Off Three
Blanchard reeled off three touchdowns and Davis the other two through a furiously-fighting Navy defense that, for surprisingly long periods, checked and hamstrung what has been called one of the greatest attacks in gridiron history. Navy lost, but it put up a stout battle and steadily refused to fall apart before the famous Plainsmen.

The Middles not only scored against Army's first team, but they did it twice and the second time they went right through the middle of the Cadets' hitherto impregnable line.

When big Joe Bartos, Navy full-back, plunged across from the one-foot line in the fourth period it was the first time in nine games this year that an opponent had gone through the Army's first team forwards to score.

A chill breeze had the spectators huddled in their blankets when the two captains, Army's Johnny Green and Navy's Dick Duden, called the flip at midfield. Green won, and for a change, Army chose to receive the kickoff.

Arnold Tucker, the Soldiers' ailing quarterback, who had been in bed with the flu since Tuesday and didn't feel so good—he said—ran the kick back to Army's 44. From there, in exactly seven plays, Army's great team drove to a touchdown.

Navy Coach Proves Point
Coach Cmdr. Oscar Hagberg of the Navy had proved his point—Army couldn't call its shot, could not score in two plays.

But the Cadets did score in seven plays. Tucker, the invalid, ripped for 13, and Davis, on a lateral from Tucker, picked up 19, electrifying the great crowd with his dippy-doo running. Finally, with the ball on the one-yard mark, Blanchard plummeted over. That was in three minutes and 28 seconds, quite up to the Army tradition.

Not much later, but after Navy had run for a couple of first downs, the boys from the plains struck again. This time they started from Navy's 42. On the first play the still-ailing Tucker ranged through the Navy center for 25, and on the next play Blanchard, all 205 pounds of him, broke away and ran 17 for the score.

Davis, who up to this time had been watching his illustrious teammates' smoke, then decided to take a hand. With the ball reposing on Navy's 49-yard line, the result of a short kick by Navy's Bruce Smith, little scatterfoot took off around the Middles' right end, stopped abruptly at the sideline, and sprinted for a score. With Dick Walterhouse booting his second extra point in three attempts, that made it 20 to 0 and there were visions of a huge score against Navy—perhaps in the sixties.

That was why the crowd including possibly the president, got such a kick out of the Middles' comeback. Suddenly it turned into a football game.

Army All Mixed Up
Army, instead of going on to win by whatever score it chose as Coach Earl Glick's charges had in other games this year, found itself mixed up in a contest. The boys from Annapolis more or less took over the second period, handcuffing Davis and Blanchard, and right at the last they scored on a spectacular play.

With only 15 seconds remaining, and with the ball on Navy's 23, Bruce Smith fell back and threw a pass in the general direction of

Ben Hogan Leads In Orlando Open

ORLANDO, Fla., Dec. 1.—(P)—Ben Hogan of Hershey, Pa., turned in a six-under-par 65 today to take the lead in the third $10,000 Orlando open golf tournament.

The final round will be played tomorrow with 68 contestants still in the field.

Hogan racked up six birdies today to give him a 54-hole today of 203 and put him four strokes ahead.

Trailing him at 207 were pros Ky Laffoon, Chicago, and Herman Keiser, Akron, Ohio. Close behind them at 208 were Johnnie Revolta, Evanston, Ill. Another stroke back with 209's were Dick Metz, Chicago and Henry Ransom, Houston, Tex.

By virtue of today's play, the Hershey professional held what was considered a safe lead over two very pre-tournament favorites—Sam Snead, Hot Springs, Va., and Harold (Jug) McSpaden, Sanford, Me.

Browns Hold Spring Work In California

First Practice Game With Pittsburgh March 2 In Los Angeles

ST. LOUIS, Dec. 1.—(P)—The St. Louis Browns today announced a 34-game spring exhibition schedule, including 19 contests with the National league champion Chicago Cubs.

The Browns will open training February 20 at Anaheim, Calif., and will play their first game March 2 against the Pittsburgh Pirates at Los Angeles.

Closing the spring schedule are two games of the annual city series with the St. Louis Cardinals. The schedule:

March 2, Pittsburgh at Los Angeles; March 3-4, Pittsburgh at Anaheim; March 8, Pittsburgh at San Bernardino; March 9-10, Hollywood at Hollywood; March 13, White Sox at Pasadena; March 14-15, Cubs at Los Angeles.

March 16-17, Pittsburgh at Hollywood; March 19, Pittsburgh at Los Angeles; March 20, White Sox at Anaheim; March 22-23-24, Cubs at Los Angeles; March 25, Cubs at Anaheim; March 26, Hollywood at Hollywood; March 27, Los Angeles at Los Angeles.

March 29-30-31, Cubs at Phoenix; April 1, Cubs at Tucson; April 2, Cubs at El Paso; April 4-5, Cubs at San Antonio; April 6, Cubs at Houston; April 7, Cubs at Dallas; April 8, Cubs at Tulsa; April 9, Cubs at Oklahoma City; April 10, Cubs at Wichita; April 11, Cubs at Kansas City; April 13-14, Cardinals at St. Louis.

Clyde Scott, the Smackover, Ark., product.

It was a prodigious heave, fully 40 yards, and Scott gathered it in on Army's 35 yard line, just over Davis' finger tips. He lit out for the goal line, with Davis in pursuit, and just made it. Davis dived and hit him and knocked him down just as he crossed the last line. Jack Currence kicked the point to make it Army 20 and Navy 7.

"Doc" Intercepts A Pass
Early in the third period Blanchard intercepted a short pass by Smith, who was passing in his own territory, and barged 45 yards to Army's fourth score, weaving his way past a half-dozen would-be tacklers. For the remainder of that quarter, the Cadets were deep in their own territory and going no good whatever, though Army was leading 26-7.

The final period was in its infancy when Davis, trying to pass and rushed by the Middles linemen, got off a throw he hoped would hit a friendly face. Instead, the ever-present Bruce Smith intercepted it and ran it to Army's 26, and from there the Tars barged to their second score—the first through the Army line.

Bill Marron rocketed through Army's stalwarts to the 15, carrying a couple of them with him. Joe Bartos busted the Cadet middle for more yards and planted the ball on the three, and then he plunged it on across.

Holbrook To Meet Brown Tuesday Night

Wright And Baxter Will "Scrap It Out" In The Semi-Windup

WRESTLING MATCHES
Main Event
Orville Brown vs. Vic Holbrook
Heavyweight Champion vs. Challenger
Alliance, Kansas vs. Hollywood, Calif.
Two falls out of 3, 90-minute time limit.

Semi-Windup
"Rube" Wright vs. Laverne Baxter
Los Angeles, Calif. vs. Columbus, Ohio
Two falls out of 3, 45-minute time limit.

Opening Event
Jack Steele vs. Danny Fanelon
Centerville, Ia. vs. Dubuque, Ia.
One fall with a 30-minute time limit.
Time: 8:30 p. m. Tuesday.
Place: State Guard Armory.
Referee: Jimmy Parker, St. Joseph.

By virtue of beating Ray Graham, Dallas, Texas, last Tuesday night during a team match, Vic Holbrook was given an opportunity to challenge Orville Brown, claimant to the heavyweight title, for the main event on the wrestling card of the Pettis County Post No. 16, American Legion, this Tuesday night. Holbrook and Brown, ran into a riot in Kansas City, Kansas, last week resulting in what Holbrook declares an unfair decision.

"I would like very much to meet Brown in Sedalia, where the crowd, although getting unruly at times, will respect two good wrestlers," the Sinatra of the wrestling ring, Holbrook declared last Friday in Kansas City. It took Promoter Simon Kalis only a few minutes to grab up the match for Sedalia.

Brown and Holbrook no doubt will put on a great show for the fans, one which they will enjoy. It may turn into somewhat of a rough affair as both are talented in that type of wrestling as well as knowing the orthodox style of just "plain" wrestling.

The semi-windup should be filled with excitement, due to the meeting of "Rube" Wright, and Laverne Baxter, both who "kinda" toss the rules of wrestling out the window. Baxter's method is so much like that of Wright's that they should get along just "scrap" in the ring.

Jack Steele, Centerville, Ia., is making his first appearance in the Sedalia ring, while that good looking chap, Danny Fanelon, Dubuque, Ia., is coming back to thrill the fans. It is another match that was "just made to order for Sedalia fans," so says Promoter Kalis.

Not Enough Bowl Tickets Says Iba

STILLWATER, Okla., Dec. 1.—(P)—Winning football teams are nice things to have, and so are friends, Oklahoma Aggie Athletic Director Hank Iba admits, but then again—

The situation brings up more complications than a 12-reel mystery serial with one exception—there are no solutions to Iba's problems.

Iba, just back from conferences with Sugar Bowl officials over the Aggies' game with St. Mary's in New Orleans New Year's Day, said that only 2,500 tickets had been allotted for sale in Oklahoma.

"We were allotted the same number of tickets that every team going to the Sugar Bowl always gets," Iba said, "but that makes it tough on us. We've had close to 8,000 calls for tickets and we can't stretch 2,500 to meet the demand."

"We'll just have to do our best and make that number go as far as we can. Anyone who hasn't already applied for tickets had better give up and plan to stay home and listen to the game on the radio."

Iba claims he didn't know he had so many friends until the Aggies were given the Sugar Bowl bid.

MIAA-MCAU Faculty Coaches In Meeting

KANSAS CITY, Dec. 1.—(P)—Faculty representatives and coaches of the Missouri Intercollegiate Athletic Association (MIAA) and the Missouri College Athletic Union (MCAU), in joint executive session today, adopted a plan for selection of the state's entry in the National Intercollegiate Basketball tournament here next March.

Four teams will meet in a play-off under terms of the plan. The competing teams will include the champions of the M. I. A. A. and M. C. A. U., winner of a game between the second place clubs in each loop, and the leading independent team of the state.

In separate meetings, both conferences completed arrangements for the return of full basketball programs this winter and each agreed that returning service men will be allowed to participate immediately.

Sports competition while in service will not effect eligibility of veterans in either conference.

Sport Scraps

(By D. KELLY SCRUTON)

WITH Missouri getting the bid to the Cotton Bowl down at Dallas, Texas, it puts the good old Tiger team right back among the headlines on the gridiron of the nation. With a bad start at the opening of the season, the Tigers fought and scratched their way to the top by making a clean sweep of the Big Six.

Looking back over the season the Tigers whipped to their knees in their first two games, losing to Minnesota 0 to 34 then a beating from Ohio State 6 to 47, only to come back strong and set Southern Methodist back 10 to 7. Their only other loss was to Michigan State 7 to 14.

Chauncey Simpson, the Missouri "war-time" coach will be strictly in command of the Tiger squad for this Cotton Bowl game, Don Faurot said the past week. However, chains couldn't hold Faurot in Columbia on New Year's Day and he will be right along helping Simpson when he is called upon.

Already Sedalians are trying to find out "where and how do you get tickets". Personally I don't know, but I have hopes of being down there if possible, you know transportation is tough at the present time.

KNOWING Roy Hamey, president of the Kansas City Blues, I can imagine his surprise when they told him he was considered for the Presidency of the American Association and his shock when they told him Parke Carroll, was in line for his job as head man of the Blues. Hamey takes things in stride and doesn't get excited over anything, when his team was on a greased slide to the cellar in the Association, Hamey took it as a matter-of-fact and didn't get any gray hairs, but did give a group of orders.

He's a swell guy and if the Association ever wanted a man who would be a big help to the Association, then I think he would be a real choice.

I had a clipping sent me recently of a game the Detroit Tigers played at Jefferson City, to be exact it was August 18, 1899 at which time the Major league team couldn't take it and walked off the field at the Capitol City in a great big HUFF. It was a recollection of Charles E. Dewey, Jefferson City Farmer.

In this clipping appeared the name of R. F. "Dick" Rohn who played first base on the Jefferson City team. The team was the amateur champions of that season. It seems that the game had reached the end of the seventh inning with the Capitol City leading 7 to 6, when the Tiger manager demanded their cut of the gate receipts.

He informed the Jefferson City aggregation if they didn't get their money right then and there, they wouldn't play anymore. Promised they would get it at the end of the contest didn't satisfy the manager and he called his boys off.

Funny Things happened in those days.

SMITH-COTTON won the Concordia basketball tournament Saturday night. Now a problem is experienced. It seems the tournament was more for practice games than anything else, little expecting to win the tournament. The Tigers claim the title, but it is classed as an "outdoor" tournament although played inside, and cannot count on the Tiger's season record. It's "official" as far as winning, but "unofficial" as far as a season standing is concerned.

All these practice games, the ones played in the tournament and those played Monday in practice at Smith-Cotton, are unofficial, but the Tigers remain undefeated.

We hope it is a good indication as to the "official" season.

Bath House Handicap To Consistent Hollyman

HOT SPRINGS, Ark., Dec. 1.—(P)—Mrs. G. H. Emick's Consistent Hollyman nipped Leon Tikulski's speedy Bolus at the wire today to gain a nose decision in the $1,500 Bath House Row handicap before an estimated crowd of 5,000 at Oaklawn Park.

The three-year-old son of Ladysman and Kelly Heck covered the six furlongs in 1:10.3, fastest time of the meeting and only two fifths of a second off the track record, to triumph for his Kansas City owner over the six-year-old Bolus who was bet down to almost prohibitive one to three odds.

A and R. Craig's My Tet Rambler was third in the six-horse field, three lengths back of Bolus. Aerial Actress, Gen. W. and Just Beans finished in that order.

Arkansas Beats The SAAF Cagers 101-37

FAYETTEVILLE, Ark., Dec. 1.—(P)—Scoring a point a minute, lanky center George Kok helped his fellow University of Arkansas basketballers to a 101-37 victory over the Sedalia, Mo., Army Air Field at Razorback Field House tonight.

Taken out after 32 minutes of play, Kok had sacked up 15 field goals and two free throws.

Holmes and Olson shared scoring honors for the visitors, each sinking 9 points.

The Porkers led all the way and had a 50-24 edge at the half.

Average Of 5.8 Deer Seen By Hunters

JEFFERSON CITY, Dec. 1.—(Special)—The average number of deer—bucks, does and fawns—reported seen by the 819 successful hunters during Missouri's recent 3-day open season was 5.8. This figure compared to an average of 6.7 deer reported seen by the 519 licensed hunters who reported taking deer during the 1944 season.

The average number of deer seen by 5,963 unsuccessful hunters who had reported to the Conservation Commission by November 26 was 4.4. Many of them said they saw only does or fawns or got a glimpse of the elusive buck out of gun range.

Notre Dame Sunk 39-7 By Great Lakes

Write Fitting Finish To Big Time Football For 1945 Season

By Jimmy Jordan

GREAT LAKES, Ill., Dec. 1.—(P)—Great Lakes' surprising Bluejackets, who two years ago knocked Notre Dame out of a national championship by scoring in the closing seconds of their game, today wrote a fitting finish to big time football in Ross Field by crushing the Irish under a last period barrage of touchdowns 39 to 7.

The game was the last ever to be played on Ross Field, which is to be torn down next week. Frank Aschenbrenner, 180-pound former Marquette player was the star as the Bluejackets and Lt. Paul Brown, their coach, ended the World War two schedule.

Four times the Jackets crossed the Notre Dame goal line in the last quarter, after they had come from behind to take a 13-7 lead in the second period.

22,000 See Crushing
In smothering the Irish before a crowd of 22,000 sailors, the Bluejackets outdid their "big brothers" from the Naval Academy at Annapolis. Navy had to settle for a disputed 6-6 tie with Notre Dame, a team beaten only by Army this season. The Irish were heavily favored to defeat Great Lakes, despite the fact that the Jackets had won their last five games after losing three and tying one in their first four this season.

The Bluejackets started the scoring in the first period when Aschenbrenner ran the kickoff from his own 18 to the Notre Dame 29. Grover Klemmer and Marion Motley carried the ball to the 1 1/2 yard line and George Terlep sneaked over for a touchdown.

Notre Dame took a 7-6 lead in the second quarter when Frank Ruggiero scored four plays after he had recovered a Jacket fumble on the 21 yard line. Great Lakes came right back after the kickoff, and, starting from their own 37 yard line, went on to score without relinquishing the ball. Aschenbrenner went over from the one foot count to put the Sailors into the lead.

After a scoreless third quarter, the Jackets went into high gear, with Aschenbrenner and Motley scoring on line plays. Bill O'Connor tallied on a short pass from Terlep for another, and Dick Otelle climaxing the scoring spree with a 47 yard runback of an intercepted pass.

Sullivan converted three times for the Sailors.

SMU Gives TCU A 34 To 0 Walloping

FORT WORTH, Tex., Dec. 1.—(P)—Southern Methodist turned loose Paul Page, slender freshman, on Texas Christian today and the mid-season graduate from the second team dashed 51, 63 and 55 yards for touchdowns to spark the Mustangs to a 34-0 victory—one of the top-heavy triumphs of 23 years of rivalry between these bitter football rivals.

Page, a 6-foot-1 170-pounder from Eldorado, Tex., not only scored three of the five touchdowns but he intercepted two passes to set up another.

The Horned Frogs were potent between the 30-yard stripes but couldn't budge the mighty Methodist line once in scoring territory. As for SMU, the Mustangs scored from everywhere.

A crowd of 18,000 saw the Mustangs tame the Horned Frogs easier than any team in recent years, then use second stringers all the last period.

Missouri Makes Final Plans For Cotton Bowl

COLUMBIA, Mo., Dec. 1.—(P)—The University of Missouri committee on intercollegiate athletics will convene here Monday to make final plans for Missouri's participation in the Cotton Bowl football game against the University of Texas.

Also on the committee agenda is the award of football letters to the Big Six championship squad, and approval of the 1945-46 basketball schedule.

Baylor Beats The Rice Owls 17 To 14

HOSTON, Tex., Dec. 1.—(P)—Bull Johnson, 250 pound center from Atlanta, Texas, booted a field goal from the 31 yard line with 15 seconds to play and Baylor's unpredictable Bears won an upset 17-14 victory over the Rice Owls here today before 17,000 fans.

The loss deprived the Owls of a tie for second place in the Southwest Conference with Southern Methodist which whipped Texas Christian today.

Outstanding Teams In All-College Tourney

OKLAHOMA CITY, Dec. 1.—(P)—Four outstanding Southwest Conference basketball teams and one from the Pacific Coast today were added to the eight-team field which will meet in the all-college tournament here December 26-27-28.

Added to the already announced University of Oklahoma, University of Kansas and Oklahoma A. and M. five were University of Arkansas, University of Texas, Texas Christian, Rice Institute and Pepperdine College.

Tournament officials announced that games would be played both during the afternoon and night. Pairings will be announced later.

Warning To Hunters From C. C. Officials

First 25 Days Of November, Ten Are Accidentally Shot

JEFFERSON CITY, Mo., Dec. 1.—(Special)—Ten hunting accidents reported in Missouri during the first 25 days of November prompted State Conservation Commission officials to warn hunters against careless handling of guns. In addition to the ten accidents which occurred in the field, the Conservation Commission said it had reports of five other gun mishaps during the month. Four of these occurred in the victim's home, one in an automobile. Seven of the accidents were fatal.

"Most of the accidents may be attributed to sheer carelessness with guns in one form or another," a Commission spokesman said. "For example, a Jackson county man was killed crawling through a barbed wire fence with his loaded gun. A deer hunter climbed a tree to get a better view of his game and was injured when a companion handed a gun to him muzzle first. A St. Louis hunter died because his brother did not watch where his gun was pointing, while the two were hunting together."

"Careful hunters are always conscious of the muzzle of their gun and know instinctively at all times where it is pointing. They treat all guns with the respect due a loaded gun, and never fail to unload their firearms before entering a residence or automobile."

Commission records show that 73 gun accidents have occurred in Missouri since the first of the year.

The only reported accident while hunting in Pettis county was that of last Thursday morning, when Vincent Sullivan, 20, 313 East Saline street, received shotgun wounds in the right hip while taking his gun from his automobile. The condition of Sullivan, a patient at the Bothwell hospital, Saturday, was reported as being very serious.

Sullivan had gone to the country with Phillip Bolten, 1121 East Thirteenth street, who drove Sullivan back to Sedalia to the hospital. The accident occurred just south of the enclosed bridge near the Sedalia Water Works.

"Phog" Allen To Conduct Basketball Clinic In K. C.

KANSAS CITY, Dec. 1.—(P)—Dr. F. C. (Phog) Allen, veteran University of Kansas Coach, will conduct a basketball clinic at the Rockhurst college fieldhouse here December 22.

The Kansas mentor will bring 15 men from his varsity squad to demonstrate styles of play.

SCU Defeats UCLA For The Rose Bowl Bid

Trojans By Winning Coast Conference Meet Alabama Jan. 1

LOS ANGELES, Dec. 1.—The Southern California Trojans whipped the UCLA Bruins 26-15 today before 103,000 fans in Memorial Coliseum to earn the West's Rose Bowl bid.

The year's largest football gathering saw the Trojans generate their traditional power on the running of Halfback Ted Tannehill and the passing of Quarterback Jerry Bowman. Tannehill made two spectacular touchdown runs while Bowman had a pitching hand in three scores.

The Trojans' first score came on Tannehill's 55 yard run after taking a flat pass from Bowman late in the first period.

Southern California rolled to two touchdowns in the second quarter, Bowman passing 13 yards to End Harry Edelman and Fullback Roy Cole running two yards around end. A Bowman-Adelman pass, good for 13 yards, paved the way for Cole's score.

Tannehill broke off tackle on a 24 yard scoring sprint in the third quarter.

Behind 19-0 at half time, the battling Bruins scored on a 59 yard pass play from Quarterback Ernie Case to Left Half Skip Rowland in the first two minutes of the third quarter.

The Bruins added eight points in the final quarter on a safety and Jack Porter's 45 yard pass to Bob Wheeler.

Southern California thus finished as the Pacific Coast Conference leader, making their selection tonight as the conference's Rose Bowl representative against Alabama January 1 a mere formality.

Don Faurot To Be The Kemper Speaker Dec. 10

BOONVILLE, Mo., Dec. 1.—(P)—Don Faurot, University of Missouri athletic director, was announced today as guest speaker December 10 at the 26th annual Kemper Military School and Boonville high school football banquet.

Chamber of Commerce officials, in making the announcement, said Faurot would be accompanied by acting head football coach Chauncey Simpson and Jim Kekkeris star tackle.

Orange Bowl Pick Not To Be Made Until Monday

NEW ORLEANS, Dec. 1.—(P)—The Orange Bowl will not pick its southern football team before Monday, and the entire sponsoring committee will make the choice. Will Preston, committee chairman, who attended the Louisiana State-Tulane game here revealed today.

VICTORY LOAN

FOR THE LAST TIME, AMERICA - BUY EXTRA BONDS!

Well, it's over...

We came through the greatest danger in our history, to our greatest victory.

The price of that victory—in blood and in money—was high.

We can thank God that the price in blood is paid in full. There will be no more deaths in battle, no more new casualties.

But the price in money is still not quite paid!

Your money is still needed by the men who helped to pay in blood. Hospitalization for the wounded, the disabled. Artificial limbs for the men who have given their real ones. And help for the wives and orphans of the men who gave everything.

Your money is still needed for the education and training of our veterans—to help them find a real place in the America they saved for all of us.

Just as the money you lent (at interest) in the seven American War Loans helped pave the way for victory, the money you lend now in the Victory Loan will help secure the fruits of that victory.

Not only for our veterans and casualties—but for you. For these Bonds are still the world's safest investment. They are still the way to insure yourself the security and peace of mind that come from safe, substantial savings!

This is the last time you will be asked to buy extra bonds!* It's a great opportunity to help yourself while saying "Thanks!" in a very important way to the men who made our victory possible!

*Following the Victory Loan, the sale of E, F, and G U. S. Savings Bonds will continue through regular authorized agencies and through the Payroll Savings Plan.

The VICTORY

LOAN is on!

McCORMICK-DEERING

PLAY IT SAFE!

Why take any chances on not having all your equipment in good running order next season when you can have it all fixed up now. That's our business—expert repairs on any tractor, implement or tool used in farming. We have the mechanics, the special shop equipment and a big stock of genuine IHC parts to do your work right.

The main thing is to give us a little advance notice when you can. Most of the time our shop is swamped but when we know ahead of time we can schedule your jobs and have your machines ready when you want them.

Just give us a ring. Then when you're coming in, on the next trip, load up your tractor or any other piece of equipment and drop it off here. You'll find our service as good as the McCormick-Deering machines we sell. Our prices are reasonable. And we guarantee your satisfaction.

Red Cross Corner
Miss Nettie Lamm, chairman of Junior Red Cross has received the following letter from Elmer S. Wood, regional director: "We are happy to tell you that the letter-booklet prepared by the seventh grade of the Washington school, Sedalia, has been placed with the Killmany school, Ballygraut, Islay, (Link 404) Scotland. This letter-booklet was sent March 6, 1944. We hope that there will be reply material for your Junior Red Cross members early in the school year." Miss Lamm has informed us that the JRC Roll Call is going along very well indeed, with good showing from all the schools, both urban and rural.
At the meeting of the Altar Society of the Sacred Heart church last week, it was decided to accept a quota of 60 garments for the current Red Cross project. It is hoped that other Sedalia organizations will follow suit and aid in the making of slips and petticoats for the women of refugee Europe. The quota must be completed by February 10.

Following is a quota from the ARC publication of the Clinton, Iowa chapter: "The American Red Cross recognizes service to the veteran and to his family as one of its primary obligations. This is a service which will not end with the close of hostilities and sympathetic aid will continue as long as there are any veterans who require assistance." To the veterans of Sedalia and Pettis county we should like to say again that the services of our office are available at any and all times. Any veteran with a disability who has not filed claim is urged to do so. The Red Cross office is fully equipped to handle all ex-service claims.
The school children of the Hughesville community recently sent into the office a number of stuffed animals and dolls which they had made. These were gratefully accepted by the chapter; some of the toys were placed in the Melita Day Nursery, and the others taken to the colored nursery.
